ADVANCE-Nebraska Paths to Success Luncheon
Presents: Dr. Priscilla Grew

Dr. Grew is Director of the University of Nebraska State Museum and Professor in the UNL Department of Geosciences where she teaches the large undergraduate course, "Geology of National Parks." She was UNL Vice Chancellor for Research from 1993 to 1999. Before she served as UNL Vice Chancellor, she was the second woman in the U.S. to serve as a Director of the State Geological Survey, Minnesota, 1986-1993. She earned her Ph.D. from UC-Berkeley and her B.A. from Bryn Mawr College. She is a Fellow of the American Association for the Advancement of Science, the Geological Society of America, the Geological Society of London, and the Mineralogical Society of America.

This informal luncheon series features women in STEM - (Science, Technology, Engineering & Mathematics) who will share their success strategies in navigating an academic career.
