The University of Nebraska System Organizational Sketch. The UN system comprises four campuses (see “Chancellors”). UNL is the flagship campus.

Chancellors

University of Nebraska – Lincoln
Harvey Perlman

University of Nebraska – Omaha
John Christensen

University of Nebraska – Kearney
Doug Kristensen

University of Nebraska Medical Center (Omaha)
Harold Maurer

Senior Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs (UNL provost)
Interim Ellen Weissinger

Vice Chancellor for Research and Economic Development
Prem Paul
ADVANCE PI

V.C. for Business and Finance
Christine Jackson

Institute of Agriculture and Natural Resources
Ronnie Green*

Associate Vice Chancellor for Faculty Development
Lance Perez

Assistant Vice Chancellor for Research
Kim Espy

Assistant Vice Chancellor for Research
Mike Zeleny

Associate Vice Chancellor
Susan Fritz

College of Arts & Sciences
Dean David Manderscheid

College of Engineering
Interim Dean Jim O’Hanlon

College of Agricultural Sciences and Natural Resources
Dean Steve Waller

There are additional Associate and Assistant Vice Chancellors at UNL not directly involved with ADVANCE.

Red shading indicates UNL campus. There are three target STEM colleges: Arts & Sciences, Engineering, and the Institute of Agricultural and Natural Resources (IANR).

* Vice Presidents added for clarity of structure. IANR Vice Chancellor position also serves as a Vice President for the system.
Office of Equity, Access and Diversity answers directly to the Chancellor.